

Paragraphs

Activity One:

Explain why you are most likely to find a change in paragraphs based on the topic of the paragraph in information texts. Consider the use of sub-headings etc. in your answer, and how paragraphs tend to work in stories.

Activity Two:

Write four short paragraphs that consist of at least three to four sentences. Following this, start a new paragraph by changing the place where the action is happening.

e.g.

First paragraph is set in the kitchen.

Second paragraph is set in the garden.

Third paragraph is set back in the house.

Fourth paragraph is set in the car.

Activity Three:

Write short paragraphs that consist of at least three to four sentences. Following this, start a new paragraph by changing the time when the action is happening.

e.g.

First paragraph

Second paragraph - Soon after

Third paragraph - A couple of hours later
